VOL 22/ISSUE 1/FEBRUARY 2020

“The best thing about the future is that it comes one day at a time”

Abraham Lincoln

We're one month into the new decade; where we will face new challenges, meet new people and create exciting memories for ourselves and those around us. January is a time for resetting, it can at first feel inspiring, gradually become a little daunting and resolutions begin to hang on like a thread. Then comes February; not only a time to raid the cupboard for your pancake ingredients but a chance to find your inner Cupid for Valentine's Day. Enjoy your month ahead, especially that extra day.

Blast from the past!

Before the days of us reading online recipe blogs, posting edited photographs of our dinner plates to social media and eating kale because we saw 'influencers' doing so, was a much more authentic time, the time of Airmyn First School Mums Recipe Book. Believed to be from the late 1980's/early 1990's with hand drawn images on the front and the typewriter doing the work on the inside, a collection of recipes such as 'Potato Madison' by Mrs D Southcott and 'Quick Chocolate Cake' by Mrs Hayselden were made.

Above: 'Airmyn First School Mums Recipe Book'

Pork, chilli & bean stew

Serves 4 Ready in 30 minutes

1 tbsp olive oil
400g diced pork
200g chorizo
1 red onion, sliced
2 cloves of garlic
Large pinch of chilli flakes
1 tsp ground cumin
1 red pepper, cut into chunks
400g tin chopped tomatoes
400ml chicken stock
250g small salad potatoes, halved
100g green beans
Handful of fresh coriander, chopped

Some of us may no longer work in lbs and oz but together as a community I would love to gather some of our new favourite recipes and make a 21st century collection that the 'Airmyn First School Mums' would be proud of. If you would like to share your mouth watering favourite, whether it be meat heavy, vegan or sugar free in the next issue of Airmyn News please email it to airmynnews@yahoo.com

Let's start with one of my favourite crowd pleasers...

1 Fry the pork

Heat the olive oil in a large non-stick pan. Season the pork then quickly brown all over. Add the chorizo then scoop out the meat and put on a plate. Add the onion and garlic to the pan and cook for 1 minute. Add the chilli flakes, cumin and pepper and cook for 2 minutes.

2 Return the pork and chorizo to the pan with the tinned tomatoes and chicken stock. Bring to a simmer and add the potatoes. Cook for another 5 minutes. Season & scatter over the coriander to finish.

Airmyn sing with Tony Hadley

On the 13th January, Fly DSA Arena in Sheffield hosted 42 children from Airmyn Park Primary School along with 5000 other talented children, to perform in

'Me in Virtute' 'Young Voices 2020.'

Young voices have been running since 1992 and now stands as the largest children's choir concert in the world, there is no wonder acts such as the 'Voice' winner 'Ruti' and 'Spandau Ballet's Tony Hadley' wanted to perform with the children in front of a bustling arena of proud parents. Hits from George Ezra, Ghostbusters, Queen and many more were belted around the arena accompanied by the conductor, his live band and of course the smiles and flashing lights of 5000 children. What a way to kick start 2020 and the new decade ahead of us!!!

Watch out for Dalby class performing in 'The Goole Schools Dance Festival' at the Junction on March 10th.

Did you know?

The following is from 'Airmyn in days gone by' Volume 3 by David Galloway.

In 1919 when the Airmyn Estate was sold by the Heber – Percies, nobody stood to gain anything by buying the village clock or its site. The family didn't want the clock either but initially at least it wasn't prepared to bequeath it to the village, even though it had been paid for by public subscription. (The tower had cost £700, the clock £130 and it was said the builders made a profit of just 7s 6d). The Parish Council refused on principle to pay even a nominal annual rent so the tower was locked and the clock stopped for almost four years. Eventually, in February, 1924, a "Goole Times" reporter mirrored the farcial stalemate in appropriate verse:

1. Dickery, Dickery Dock
They want a rent for the clock
But the Council say
They will not pay,
Decidedly, certainly not
2. Dickery Dickery Dock,
They've turned the key in the lock
Silent it stands
With folded hands,
The poor old Airmyn clock.
3. Dickery, Dickery Dock,
The Earl of Beverley clock,
'Tis only willing
To go for a shilling,
Dickery, Dickery Dock.

Snowdrop Festival:

For the 10th year in succession, there will be a Snowdrop Festival in Airmyn church to celebrate the beauty of the snowdrops that have been a feature in Airmyn's churchyard every February for about, we believe, the past 150 years. The church will be open from 10am onwards and refreshments will be on sale inside. There will also be a cake stall, a tombola and a raffle. There will be a service of Evening Prayer at 3pm to end the day and we hope that quite a few of our visitors will choose to stay and take part in this service.

There will be three prizes awarded for the best photographs submitted of this year's snowdrops in Airmyn churchyard, one for children of junior school age, one for children of senior school age and one for adults (over 18).

'Big Breakfast' Event in aid of Fishlake Flood Relief Fund:

Look out for photos and a write up in the next issue of Airmyn News to see the tasty event that took place on Sunday 2nd February at Airmyn Memorial Hall.
